

Upcoming Webinar! Ask CAPTRUST: Annuities – Taking a Deeper Dive

In this follow-up to our webinar last year “Outliving Your Annuities”, we’ll take a deeper dive into how annuities can support long-term retirement income planning.

This session will explore advanced strategies for structuring annuity payouts, managing longevity risk, and integrating annuities with other retirement income sources. We’ll also discuss how market conditions, inflation, and evolving financial goals can impact annuity performance over time. Whether you’re already using annuities or considering them as part of your retirement strategy, this webinar will help you make more informed, confident decisions.
